PRESS RELEASE

**For Immediate Release****

Date: May 20, 2010

Contact: Chief Steven R. Williams

Message: On May 18, 2010 at 1:30pm Barrett Township Police received a complaint of an erratic driver traveling north on SR390 in the area of Cresco. This vehicle drove off the side of the road and the vehicle's mirror hit a utility pole. The vehicle then pulled into the parking lot of CVS Pharmacy.

Police arrived and found the operator of the vehicle to be a 50 year old Pittston man named Robert Brown. Brown, whom is employed by a third party, was delivering narcotics to the CVS Pharmacy prior to the accident. Brown showed signs of being under the influence of an unknown substance.

Brown was arrested for suspicion of DUI and transported to Pocono Medical Center. Brown was then released to his father. Charges are pending on the results of the chemical testing.

Pennsylvania State Police also assisted in the investigation.
